The Law of the Universe or just a bad luck?

It is an obvious thing, but we never think of it this way.

The problem is that your mind does not work on you in a way you think it should. What I mean?

You probably think that your mind is constantly busy, trying to solve real life questions that arise in your life for the better? Yes it looks like you are right, but you are only half right.

First of all, you are right that your mind is busy solving real life problems. However, it your brain is also busy performing a certain program, that is imposed by your subconscious...

brain is also busy performing a certain program, that is imposed by your subconscious...

Should you change your life?

Well, If everything is in perfect order in your life and you are satisfied with your destiny, and everything is fine... Than you can leave everything like it is and do nothing - the program of your subconscious mind suits you well.

But if the current state of affairs in your life does not suit you and it seems to you that you are stuck and trampled down in one place for many years, than it is time to realize, that the program your subconscious is imposing on your mind, requires a certain adjustment...

The mission of being happy

Most people can not change their life-program simply because they do not suspect that the mind can work against them - that is, not to create the good and happiness in your life, but to the routine execution of a subconscious program that can be directed not at your Happiness, but for something completely different.
